Biography

This project is a lifelong dream long overdue and immensely fulfilling! There is no music in my lifetime that made as huge an impact on the world like that of the Beatles! The incredible innovation of production combined with clever harmonic and melodic beauty touched millions of hearts and souls way back when I was a kid to such an impact that it more than gracefully mastered the test of time and largely inspired my start in music! This music started it all and it has for most of us and myself the same thrill now as it had back then! I'm happy to convey my love of this in my new interpretation of these great songs! Al Di Meola is planning an extensive tour throughout Europe in June, July, August 2013. We are looking for concerts and festivals. If interested, do not hesitate to contact us!
